

IPA Lifetime Achievement Award Nomination Form

Background:

The IPA Lifetime Achievement Award acknowledges the lifetime contribution of an individual for outstanding research in permafrost science or engineering, and/or for exceptional contributions to the international permafrost community. A maximum of one award is made every two years, at the regional and international conferences on permafrost.

Nominations should be submitted by adhering bodies to the IPA Secretariat prior to the deadline set by the IPA Nomination and Awards Committee.

Documents:

The nomination package consists of the following nomination form, which includes:

- ▶ a brief section with the name and the contact information of the nominee
- ▶ a confirmation that the nominee has been informed of the nomination and agrees to be nominated
- ▶ a citation documenting the nomination
- ▶ up to five letters of support (as part of the form)

The nomination package should include at least three letters of support from three different IPA members countries. Up to five can be made.

Each IPA member country, through its adhering body, submits only one nomination as lead, although individuals from the IPA member country can write letters of support for other nominations. Nominations are not made by individuals.
